

DEATHS

WOLFHARD, F. Duretta - At St. Mary's Hospital, on Sunday, Dec. 7, 1997, after a brief illness.

Duretta was born on January 1, 1899.

Predeceased by her husband of 63 years. Harry Wolfhard of Kitchener and by brothers, Earl, Alvin, Ralph and sister, Mayme. She is survived by her brother, Bob Leslie and his wife Helen of California; loving mother of William Wolfhard and his wife Esther of New Hamburg and Leslie Fowler and her husband Raymond of Kitchener; grandmother to Sue Kalbfleisch and her husband Andy of Ancaster, Peter Wolfhard and wife Lyn of Midland, William Fraser and wife Brenda of Brockville, Peter Fraser and wife Rosanne of Edmonton; grandmother of Simon and Aaron Fraser of Edmonton, Jonathan Fraser of Brockville, Beth Kalbfleisch of Ancaster and Steven Wolfhard of Midland.

She was a longtime member of Westmount Golf and Country Club and a member of an arts and craft group. She was Senior Citizen of the year in 1993. Duretta was a talented artist and was a past member of Doon School of Art, a writer and had many hobbies.

Friends may call at the Ratz-Bechtel Funeral Home, 621 King St. W., Kitchener on Wednesday from 2-4 where the funeral and committal service will be held at 4 p.m., with Dr. Grant MacDonald officiating. Interment will be in Woodland Cemetery.

Donations to St. Mary's Hospital Foundation, the Heart and Stroke Foundation Ontario or the ALS Society, as expressions of sympathy.

Reception to follow in the Ratz-Bechtel Family Centre.

Like a Dresden lady,

never growing old.

Time has lightly touched her with a wand of gold.

Hair a glint of silver.

An unfurrowed brow,

just a hint of hauteur

lends a charm some how.

May Sparks Dyer