

Leslie Marie Wolfhard, Lieut. William Fraser Wed

Baskets of pink and white peonies mixed with blue delphiniums and fern lined the chancel steps of the Church of St. John the Evangelist for the wedding this afternoon at 4 o'clock of Miss Leslie Marie Wolfhard to Lieut. William Fennel Fraser of the Scots Fusiliers of Canada (Active). Bouquets of pastel shaded roses decorated the altar. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. N. H. Mills.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfhard, Queen Street South, and the bridegroom the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Fraser, Queen Street South.

Miss Shirley Mason was at the organ and Mr. Oscar Weichel of Elmira sang "For Thee Alone."

In a period gown of white Luxembourg lace over a foundation of egg-shell taffeta the bride presented a lovely picture as she entered the church with her father, who gave her in marriage. Fashioned with a high neckline and long, tight sleeves, the gown fell into a slight train. Her headdress was a small pill box cap of mohair Battengurg topping a long, floor-length veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Sweetheart roses, forget-me-nots and bouvardia centred with a gardenia.

The Misses Mary Voelker and Yvonne Wilson, as maid of honor and bridesmaid respectively, were gowned alike in blue floor-length Luxembourg lace made with sweetheart necklines, three-quarter-length sleeves and torso bodices. Yellow Victorian picture hats finished with blue velvet streamers and Victorian nosegays of Queen Elizabeth roses, blue cornflowers and bouvardia completed their costumes.

Lieut. Thomas Haller of the Scots Fusiliers (Active) was best man. Lieut. Robert Menzies, also of the Scots Fusiliers, and Mr. Jack Fraser brother of the bridegroom, and Mr. William Wolfhard, brother of the bride, were the ushers.

A reception was arranged at Forest Hill Gardens where a buffet supper was served from tables decorated with peonies, roses and orange blossoms. The bride's table was centred with a wedding cake topped with small Union Jacks. White tapers and roses and orange blossoms completed the lovely centre.

Mrs. Wolfhard was attired in a street-length frock of dusty pink with a natural baku hat and accessories and a corsage of Token roses and bouvardia to receive the guests with the bridal couple and Mrs. Fraser, who chose a street-length jacket dress of light blue with small pink hat and pink accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses.

For travelling the bride donned a blue and white printed silk dress with matching jacket and finished with a baku hat and a scarlet coat. For ornament she wore a gardenia.

The out-of-town guests included Dr. and Mrs. Hillis of Guelph, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Dyer, Galt, Miss Marjorie Devey, Galt, Lieut.-Col. William Macklin and Mrs. Macklin, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson, St. Thomas, Mrs. W. Orr, Nashville, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Weichel, Mrs. M. T. Weber, Mrs. Oscar Vogt and Dr. and Mrs. H. Winch, Elmira, Miss Mary Tully, Midland, Miss Norma McPherson, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holliday and daughter Evelyn, Mrs. J. H. McDougall and Mr. Norman McDougall, all of Mount Forest, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Mountain and daughter Molly of Stratford and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Leslie of St. Catharines.

PAGE 1

JULY 3, 1942

NEWLYWEDS—Shown above are Lieut. and Mrs. William Fraser, whose wedding took place at the Anglican Church of St. John the Evangelist on Saturday. Prior to her marriage the bride was Miss Leslie Marie Wolfhard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfhard, Queen Street South. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Fraser, Queen Street South.

A Grandmother's Gifts

OF THE MANY beautiful quilts on display at trousseaux teas in this city in recent months prob-