

Eleanor Knechtel Plights Troth With W. H. Wolfhard

Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Eleanor Marie Knechtel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Knechtel, 29 Glasgow St., and William H. Wolfhard of Kitchener, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfhard of Montreal, in a pretty ceremony at Pentecostal Tabernacle on Saturday. Rev. C. Nelson officiated.

Miss Jean Dudyk sang "Because," during the signing of the register. Pianist was Mrs. Eugene Tupman.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white slipper satin designed with a fitted bodice, full skirt and slight train. It featured a sheer decollete neckline edged with satin and lily-pointed sleeves. A bandeau of white flowers caught her double finger-tip veil of scalloped net. She carried a cascade bouquet of Better Times roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Arthur Luening and bridesmaid, Miss Grace Knechtel. They were gowned in turquoise crepe, fashioned like that of the bride, and enhanced with a double ruffle about a low, rounded neckline. The sleeves were cap style. Elbow-length gloves of similar material and matching Juliet caps, trimmed along one side with fuchsia feathers, completed their ensembles. Both carried pink Virginia carnations tied with fuchsia tulle.

Miss Mary Jane Luening, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed in a dusty pink frock styled like those of the other attendants. Her headdress consisted of a bandeau of sweet peas and she carried a colonial nosegay of an orchid and pink and white sweet peas.

Duties of best man were performed by Mr. Robert Leslie. Ushering were Messrs. Frederick Chace of Elmira and Harvey Kolb.

A reception was held at the Old Mill where dinner was served to 50 guests.

Receiving with the couple were their mothers. Mrs. Knechtel wore a street-length dress of Hunter green crepe with gold and green accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses, and Mrs. Wolfhard, a moss green crepe gown with jewelled shoulders.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolfhard are honeymooning this week at Lamberlost Lodge. The bride travelled in a chartreuse gabardine suit enhanced with a corsage of Talisman roses. Her topcoat was trimmed with leopard fur to match her shoulder bag of leopard and her accessories were brown.

On their return, they will reside at 775 Queen St. E.
